WHAT IS THIS BOOK ABOUT?

Germany: development of dictatorship, 1918-45 is a modern depth study that focuses on the origins of the Weimar Republic, the challenges it faced and to what extent it overcame them. The course also investigates why and how the Weimar Republic was dismantled by the Nazis, replaced by a dictatorship and then changed by the Second World War. You will focus on crucial events during this period, and study the different social, cultural, political, economic and military changes that occurred.

Purpose

This study enables you to understand the complexities and challenges faced by the democratic Weimar Republic and how it was transformed into a one-party state under the leadership of the Nazis. You will investigate themes such as democracy, revolution, dictatorship, government, propaganda, censorship, economy and society. This course will enable you to develop the historical skills of causation and consequence, and encourage you to analyse and evaluate contemporary sources as well as interpretations of the time period.

Topics

Germany: development of dictatorship, 1918-45 is split into 5 key topics.

- ☐☐ Topic 1 looks at the Weimar Republic between 1918 and 1929. You will study the origins of the new republic, the political and economic challenges it faced, and to what extent it recovered between 1924 and 1929. You will also study how society changed during the 'Golden Years'.
- ☐☐ Topic 2 looks at the early development of the Nazi Party, the failed Munich Beer Hall Putsch and how the Nazi Party was reorganised afterwards. You will also study the political developments during the Great Depression and how Hitler became chancellor of Germany with the aid of political intrigue.
- ☐☐ Topic 3 looks at how Hitler and the Nazis dismantled the Weimar democracy, piece by piece, and created a one-party dictatorship. You will study the way in which the Nazis tried to control the hearts and minds of the German people using propaganda and censorship in all aspects of life.
- ☐☐ Topic 4 looks at life in Nazi Germany and the Nazi policies towards women, children, education and the unemployed. You will study how living standards changed. The persecution of different minorities will also be explored.
- ☐☐ Topic 5 looks at how Germany changed to fight the Second World War and the impact of 'total war' on the home front. You will investigate how opposition to Hitler grew, culminating in the July bomb plot of 1944. The 'Final Solution' and how it was implemented will also be studied.

Key Individuals

Some of the key individuals studied on this course include:

- 👤 Adolf Hitler.
- 👤 Friedrich Ebert.
- 👤 Paul von Hindenburg.
- 👤 Gustav Stresemann.
- 👤 Rosa Luxemburg.
- 👤 Wolfgang Kapp.

Key Events

Some of the key events you will study on this course include:

- ★ The effects of the Treaty of Versailles on Germany.
- ★ The French and Belgian occupation of the Ruhr, 1923.
- ★ The impact of the Great Depression on Germany.
- ★ Hitler becoming chancellor in 1933.
- ★ The creation of the Nazi police state and the setting up of the Gestapo.
- ★ The Hitler Youth and the League of German Maidens.
- ★ The Nazi persecution of the Jews, through means such as the Nuremberg Laws.
- ★ The growth of opposition to the Nazis during the Second World War, including the Swing Youth and the White Rose Group.

Assessment

Germany: development of dictatorship, 1918-45 forms part of paper 1 which you have a total of 1 hour 30 minutes to complete. You should spend 45 minutes on this section of the paper. There will be 1 exam question on Germany: development of dictatorship, 1918-45. The question will be broken down into 4 sections; a, b, c(i) and c(ii). You will answer a, b and either c(i) or c(ii).

- 👤 Question A is worth 6 marks. This question will require you to examine an extract and assesses your ability to analyse and evaluate a historical interpretation. You will need to identify the author's opinion or perspective by analysing the language the author uses and what they have chosen to comment on. You will explain how valid the overall impression is by using your own knowledge to evaluate that impression.
- 👤 Question B is worth 8 marks. This question will require you to explain two effects of an event on something else by using your contextual knowledge and looking at the consequences. You will need to identify 2 effects and then demonstrate how the event led to the effect you have identified.
- 👤 Questions C(i) and C(ii) are worth 16 marks. This question will require you to construct an argument to support and challenge an interpretation stated in the question. You will be given two pieces of information to jog your memory but must use your own information. You will have the opportunity to show your ability to explain and analyse historical events using second order concepts such as causation, consequence, change, continuity, similarity and difference.

THE IMPACT OF THE FIRST WORLD WAR ON GERMANY

The First World War had a significant impact on Germany.

What happened with Germany and the First World War?

The First World War had a huge impact on Germany's society, politics and economy.

How did Germany enter the First World War?

The following 3 key events led to Germany entering the First World War.

- ✓ Germany declared war on Russia on the 1st August, 1914.
- ✓ After Germany invaded France via Belgium, Great Britain declared war on Germany on the 4th August.
- ✓ This was followed by the Ottoman Empire (Turkey) joining the war a few months later, in October, where it supported Germany.

How was Germany affected by the First World War?

Germany was affected in 3 key ways:

- ✓ Germany was economically damaged and the country's debt increased to 150 billion marks.
- ✓ They were affected socially with two million troops and approximately 763,000 civilians dead.
- ✓ They were affected politically with many groups attempting to seize power, the Kaiser's abdication and Germany becoming a republic.

How did the First World War affect people socially in Germany?

Germany was badly hit by the war because of the Allied Naval Blockade that stopped supplies getting into Germany during the war, and remained in place until the signing of the Treaty of Versailles, leaving many starving and ill.

How many casualties did the First World War claim in Germany?

Germany was affected socially by the First World War in 5 key ways:

- ✓ They had a high casualty rate with approximately two million dead soldiers.
- ✓ Some 600,000 women were left as widows.
- ✓ The war also took its toll on civilians, with approximately 763,000 people dying from starvation.
- ✓ The gap between rich and poor had grown as a result of the war and increased social divisions.
- ✓ Over 1 and a half million soldiers returned home following the war, many struggling to adapt back to civilian life and accept defeat.

What happened to Germany's economy after the First World War?

There were 7 significant negative effects on the economy:

- ✓ By 1918, industrial production was reduced by a third from 1913 levels.
- ✓ Fuel was short as a result of the war and consequently 300,000 people died from hypothermia.
- ✓ The government's budget was stretched by paying pensions to the 600,000 widows and 2 million orphans left after the war.
- ✓ Germany's debt was 50 billion German marks in 1914. This rapidly increased to 150 billion by 1918.
- ✓ Germany was bankrupt as it had spent all its gold reserves on the war.
- ✓ Inflation increased as a result of the weak German mark so the prices of goods were increasing.
- ✓ Germany was forced to begin interim payments to the Allies immediately after armistice was signed.

What happened to Germany politically at the end of the First World War?

There were 5 important political effects:

- ✓ There was massive political unrest with uprisings and strikes, such as the naval mutiny in Kiel in October, 1918.
- ✓ The unrest spread to become the German Revolution (p.0) began, with huge consequences for the government and constitution of Germany.
- ✓ A communist state was declared in Bavaria on 7th November, 1918.
- ✓ The kaiser lost control and abdicated.
- ✓ The new Weimar Republic (p.0) was created, and by signing the Treaty of Versailles, was greatly resented by the German people.

What were the events of the revolution in Germany before the end of the First World War?

There were 10 main events that occurred during the German Revolution (p.0):

- ✓ The allies offered Germany an armistice to end the war. Part of their deal included that Germany become a democracy and the Kaiser should abdicate.
- ✓ The kaiser declined these terms, wishing to continue with the war.
- ✓ In response, the German Navy mutinied at the end of October 1918, refusing to follow the Kaiser's orders.
- ✓ Soon a domino effect occurred and by November 1918, there were demonstrations and strikes all across Germany and a communist state declared in Bavaria.
- ✓ On the advice of his government and the army, Kaiser Wilhelm abdicated on 9th November, 1918 and fled to the Netherlands.
- ✓ Philipp Scheidemann, a member of the Social Democratic Party (SPD), announced that Germany was a republic to prevent a communist government being declared on 9th November, 1918.
- ✓ Prince Max von Baden stepped down as the kaiser's chancellor. Friedrich Ebert, the leader of the SPD, took over as the chancellor of Germany.
- ✓ On 10th November, 1918, Ebert suspended the Reichstag (parliament) and formed the Council of People's Representatives to run the country until a new constitution was written.
- ✓ Germany signed a ceasefire or armistice with the Allies on 11th November, 1918 to end the fighting in the First World War.
- ✓ In January 1919, there were elections to the Constituent Assembly, or National Assembly, which would decide on the new constitution.

What were the consequences of the German Revolution before the end of the First World War?

There were 3 key results of the German revolution (p.0):

- ✓ The kaiser abdicated.
- ✓ Germany became a republic.
- ✓ This led to the end of the First World War.
